

Peter Webb
Executive Coach / Facilitator

Senior Associate
Collective Intelligence

Peter Webb is a recognised thought leader in executive coaching with multiple publications and over 5,000 hours of global experience. He is internationally known for his research and practice in helping leaders make wise decisions under conditions of disruption and complexity.

Before moving to Melbourne in 2019, Peter served 3 years as Director, Research and Curriculum for the International Centre for Leadership in Finance based in Kuala Lumpur Malaysia. He coached senior executives and their teams across South East Asia in the Shipping, Infrastructure Engineering, Banking, Financial Services, Insurance, and Energy sectors.

Peter easily builds a warm and trusting alliance with his clients due to his background as a psychologist. Yet, his understanding of complex dynamic systems in organisations helps him quickly get to the core issues. He applies evidence-based, solution-focused coaching practices, positive psychology, mindfulness, psychometric evaluation, and the psychology of wisdom to help clients dissolve their inner and outer obstacles to achieving their goals and living well.

Previously based in Sydney, Peter has been engaged by high profile private and public sector clients for executive coaching and facilitation assignments including: Deloitte, Alcatel-Lucent, EY, CSIRO, HSBC, IAG, Australian Trade Commission, Sydney Opera House, NAB, Macquarie Group, Clayton Utz, ASIC, CBA, Department of Defence, Woolworths Limited, PwC, Diageo, SingTel Optus, Merck Sharp & Dohme, GrainCorp, Seven Network, Federal Court of Australia.
