Scott Stacey, an esteemed business leader and Executive Coach based in Melbourne, boasts an illustrious career spanning over three decades. Commencing his journey as a Chartered Accountant, Scott honed his expertise in senior finance roles across Australia and the UK. Transitioning into HR consulting, he made significant contributions to multinational organizations at the executive level, leading sales teams of up to 500 individuals.

With over 11 years of invaluable experience in global consulting, Scott ventured into entrepreneurship by founding a boutique HR consulting firm. Within a mere two years of its inception, he propelled the firm's income to an impressive $5 million, showcasing his innate ability to drive growth and success.

Scott's professional trajectory took another leap forward as he joined a prestigious management consultancy specialising in business development and leadership. Here, he played a pivotal role in delivering diverse learning and assessment solutions tailored for front-line leaders to senior executives, further solidifying his reputation as a trusted advisor and strategist.

For over a decade, Scott has dedicated himself to executive coaching, driven by his unwavering commitment to empowering professionals to enhance their business acumen. His unique approach involves collaborating closely with clients to uncover their individual understanding of business acumen and harnessing commercial drivers for personal and organizational development.

Throughout his illustrious career, Scott has coached senior leaders across a myriad of industry sectors, including Professional Services, IT, Telecommunications, Government, Media, Financial Services, Academia, and Healthcare. His breadth of experience and profound insights have positioned him as a sought-after mentor and catalyst for professional growth and success.
